Welcome to my first bulletin message of the Covid-19 era, though for many of you, it’s hardly the first time you’ve heard from me over the past several weeks. When the crisis first intensified in March I felt it was important to many people that their synagogue become an anchor, connecting them to one another and building a deep sense of spiritual purpose. We’ve tried to do that in a number of ways, stressing our primary Jewish modes of being: acting to repair the world, deepening our understanding through study, and connecting to one another and to God, through prayer and conversation. I’m exceedingly proud of how so many of us have responded to the cry of the hour. Foremost among them are those first responders and service professionals, from the doctor and nurse in the emergency room to the people who collect garbage or deliver pizzas. We’ve gained a deeper appreciation and love for all of them.

Behind the front lines, I also understood the importance of those staying inside and distancing themselves for the common good. Although I’ve had to venture out on occasion for funerals and other emergencies, I’ve been like most of you, and my notes “from the bunker” have been designed to help bring us together in common purpose. Judging from the readership and response, that has happened. Our services and other programs have also drawn lots of positive response.

Everything is a work in progress in this era of radical disruption. So, I encourage you to contact me with your ideas and preferences. For instance, we now have a minyan every day at 1:00 p.m. and now count virtual attendees as a quorum for Kaddish. Please let me know if you would like to see our Shabbat morning Torah study at 11:00 a.m. expand to a more complete service – and whether you would commit to attending regularly. We’ll be having our first Zoom Bar Mitzvah, for Eli Schwartz, on May 30 (Shavuot, Day 2) when we will also have Yizkor (Other B’nai Mitzvah were moved to the Fall.). We’ve had a number of adult ed opportunities, and our weekly Healing and Hang Out on Sunday afternoons.

Which brings us to the significance of living in this historic moment.

I’ve got a book coming out on May 14 – and I guess the book signing will need to be put off for a while - but you can still order it on Amazon, and look out for some Zoom events. Embracing Auschwitz: Forging a Vibrant, Life-Affirming Judaism that Takes the Holocaust Seriously has drawn some very positive response thus far. As I wrote in the Forward recently, the legacy of the Shoah has been amplified by a global pandemic that will define this century just as the Holocaust defined the last. And the message of one reinforces the other: We are all inextricably connected, like the woven threads of a tapestry.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. writes in his letter from the Birmingham Jail, “We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly.”

At the museum in Auschwitz, the overwhelming, unspeakable photos of the intertwined bodies of the victims (at peak efficiency, they gassed up to 3,000 at a time in Birkenau) give us a completely new way to understand that network of mutuality. In those photos, it is nearly impossible to detect where one body begins and another ends, and there is nothing to indicate which victim was from Germany, from Hungary or from Slovakia. There is very little to determine who was a Hasidic, Reform or secular Jew; Jewish or just Jew-ish, or not Jewish altogether.

And now, 75 years after the Holocaust, the line is drawn directly to our current predicament. Despite the forced separation of social distancing, never before has all of humanity felt — or been — so physically interdependent.

Our fates are literally in the hands, washed or unwashed, of millions of people whom we will never meet. College students who defy the calls to avoid bars and beaches during Spring Break are literally endangering the lives of their grandparents. Through each cough or sneeze, our bodies have become One Human Tissue.

When HIV first spread, it was suggested that when a person had unprotected sex, they were having sex with every prior partner as well. Now with this pandemic, that contention has been extended to breathing and touching.

Each hug is a potential dagger, not just for the person opposite you but to people on the other side of the world, no matter where you live or who you are. Front pages from all over the world are screaming the very same headlines. We’ve never been so lonely and fearful, sitting in our cold, quarantined rooms; but through our very separation, we’ve never been so inextricably interconnected.

And with that, we’ve reached a different place in the evolution of Judaism and human civilization.

My prayers go out to all of you, that you find safety and good health and a life of deepened significance, as we proceed during this time of uncertainty and peril.

Hello, I'm calling from TBE...

After a round of calls made to our senior congregants (many living alone) was so welcomed, over 40 volunteers called every congregant to make sure they were okay and to see if there was anything TBE could do for them. A team of volunteer shoppers was quickly put together to deliver groceries and medications and many questions and concerns were answered concerning ZOOM programs, help with accessing services or even organizing minyans on ZOOM.

Some of the individuals called requested weekly calls which our volunteers have continued to make. As we go to press with this Bulletin, a second round of calls is now being conducted by even more volunteers.

TBE is here for you and if you need any assistance, please feel free to call Steven Lander in the office at 203-322-6901, ext. 304.

EMMET’S PLAYGROUND

Emmet’s Playground is being built in memory of 10-year-old TBE member Emmet Manheim z’l. We are delighted to be working with Miracle Recreation, a company on the cutting edge of playground design. They, along with Emmet’s family and friends, have been instrumental in envisioning a space that will bring joy to any child who plays there.

At a recent town Planning Board meeting, construction of the playground was approved unanimously. Thank you to TBE member Rick Redniss, and his company Redniss&Mead, for keeping this project alive and moving forward. They have been wonderful to work with, and Rick has been very generous with his time and talents, as has general contractor Sylvan Pomerantz.

Our goal is still to break ground sometime in early August. The playground will not only provide a safe and accessible place for TBE children, but also a lovely renovated space for TBE members to relax and enjoy being outdoors, especially after so many months inside.

If you wish to learn more about Emmet’s Playground, please visit our website www.emmetsplayground.com.

BEYOND DISPUTE
DEBATES THAT SHAPE JEWISH LIFE

A TBE Adult Learning Series
led by Rabbi Joshua Hammerman

Tuesday Evenings, 5:00pm
May 12, 19, 26 on ZOOM

Future debate topics - Philosophical, spiritual, ethical, and cultural, are to be addressed in sessions:

- Are religion and reason compatible?
- Can Jewish law change based on context?
- How do we teach and talk about the Holocaust and the State of Israel?
- Is our relationship with God defined by human obligation or divine compassion?
- Should we prioritize Jewish causes or universal causes in our giving?
- Is Jewish tradition intrinsically patriarchal and ableist?

Join us for this unique opportunity to explore how these debates have been manifested over the course of Jewish history, and to discuss their continued resonance for contemporary Jewish life.

This course is made possible through the generous support of Mr. Earle Kazis and the Kazis Family Publications Foundation.
FACE SHIELD PROJECT FOR STAMFORD HOSPITAL

TBE’s Sisterhood was formed in 1922, very shortly after TBE was organized with its first fifty families. It is no surprise that the congregation established a Sisterhood so early in TBE’s history, in view of Sisterhood’s integral role in making TBE a more welcoming, comfortable and friendly place. As part of TBE’s 100th Anniversary celebration, the Sisterhood Board decided to review the Sisterhood By-Laws, last revised in 1998, and refresh them to reflect current needs, demographics, and practices. A By-Laws Revision Committee was formed consisting of Barbara Berman, Leslie Heyison (Chair), Barbara Rothstein, Cathy Satz. The proposed By-Laws may be found here: www.tinyurl.com/sistbylaws
If you have any comments or questions about them, please contact Leslie at lheyison@gmail.com or 203-964-9386 by June 1, 2020. A vote will take place after June 1st for their enactment.

Our 2020 Spring/Summer schedule started out full of exciting events!! At the beginning of March over 45 people attended a lecture given by Matt Baier, President of Organizing Professionals in CT, NAPO-CT and a best-selling author. Who knew at the time we would have plenty of time to get organized? If anyone would like to use Matt’s service, he will donate 5% to Sisterhood!! Check out mattbaier.com.

Sisterhood and Men’s Club also sponsored a presentation by Ruth Messinger which had a fantastic turnout. Ruth spoke out about injustice in this country and provided examples of what we can do to address this problem.

Thanks to Lauren Haas, Professional Organizer, Clutter Kicker, LLC for her ZOOM session on April 6 called “Decluttering and Organizing: Passover Edition.” Twenty-nine people joined the online session. It’s always special to have one-of-our-own as a presenter at a Sisterhood event, as Lauren (Kalter) Haas grew up right here at TBE. Thank you to Stan Friedman for setting up and recording the session. You can learn more about Lauren at ClutterKickerCT.com

Thank you to Betty Baer for, once again, organizing our annual Passover Food Sale, with over 80 orders this year.

ATTENTION PARENTS OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

Rabbi Hammerman would like to stay in touch with your child while he/she is away at college. Please send his/her e-mail address to Beth in the Temple office at adminassist@tbe.org. Thank you!

Get involved, please…

Help Wanted! In order to maintain our vibrant and dynamic community, the Fund-Raising Committee needs more members to support TBE and volunteer their skills and talents. Many of these opportunities ask for very small-time commitments. Please consider getting involved with the:

- Annual Appeal | Temple Rock | Cantor’s Concert
- If you are interested in volunteering, please contact us and we will give you more information.

Thank you!

CONTRIBUTING SHARES OF STOCK TO TEMPLE BETH EL

One way to boost your charitable contributions to Temple Beth El is to give shares of appreciated stock instead of cash. You do not pay any tax on your capital gain, and your charitable deduction is the shares’ entire fair market value.

Several Beth El members contribute shares of stock to satisfy their dues pledge, their annual fund pledge, and other contributions to the Temple.

After consulting your tax advisor, please contact the TBE office at 203-322-6901.

THE TBE 100 MITZVAH PROJECT

The TBE 100 Mitzvah Project provides opportunities for congregants to honor TBE’s centennial through the performance of gemilut hasadim (acts of loving kindness) that help charitable organizations in need of volunteers and non-monetary contributions.

Mitzvah Opportunities at the Schoke Jewish Family Service of Fairfield County

- Work at the kosher food pantry at SJFS. Distribute food during walk-in hours: Monday - Wednesday, 10:30 am-12:30 pm. Organize and maintain the pantry: Monday - Friday, 9 am - 4 pm.
- Deliver meals and food items to homebound clients. Time is flexible.
- Participate in Mitzvah Monday with your kids on the third Monday of each month (Mar 16, Apr 20, May 18 ...) from 3 pm-5 pm. Bring kosher food items to the pantry and help stock shelves. GREAT for teens!
- Visit a homebound client for a “friendly visit” to alleviate loneliness. Time is flexible.
- Donate food and non-food items. Items can be dropped off at the TBE office or at SJFS.

If you are interested in doing one or more of these mitzvahs, please contact Jill Knopoff at (203) 921-4161. Don’t forget to mention you’re from TBE.

After completing a mitzvah, please send a note to mitzvah100@tbe.org with the name or names of the family members who participated, the mitzvah, and a photo if possible.

We Capture Your Precious Memories on Video...

Weddings • Bar/Bat Mitzvahs

Proud to be the official TBE videographer

Tom was able to capture the spirit and joy of our B’nai Mitzvah service and party in a video we will always treasure. He was also a pleasure to work with from start to finish.

Jared Finkelstein

If you are looking for a videographer, look no further! Tom was a delight to work with and the finished product was incredible. He created separate videos of my daughter’s Bat Mitzvah service and celebration and captured all aspects of the joy of the day.
